Options for special needs

SOIL ANALYSIS      Anytime

Any customized fertilization program requires a soil analysis to determine levels of pH and nutrients. Samples are collected from your lawn and sent to an independent lab for analysis. Home Pride will then amend your treatment to correct any deficiencies.

SEEDING      Spring or Fall

There are three options for adding seed to your lawn.

- Overseeding: add grass seed to an existing lawn to strengthen and improve it.
- Slit Seeding: propels higher germination rates and healthier root systems and encourages thatch decomposition.

TOPDRESSING      Winter

Optimum growing conditions require good soil. After a soil analysis is conducted, we may recommend adding lime or organics like compost to your soil during the dormant season to improve growability.

RENOVATION      August or September

If your lawn is riddled with undesirable grasses, we may recommend totally renovating it. Starting over is sometimes the best response.

Making everything beautiful

Whether you have a brand-new home and you need to create a landscape masterpiece or you simply need a few shrubs or trees replaced, Home Pride Services is ready to make and keep everything beautiful for you.

If you are planning major renovations, our computer-generated landscape design services will help you picture the way your property will look when we finish. Landscape lighting or a top-quality water garden can add a touch of elegance to your yard. And installing irrigation can make it almost maintenance free.

Before you start relaxing, there's one more thing ...
